No. 9771—J. 1130, dated 26*th February* 1897.

The following Notifications of the Government of India, Foreign Department, Nos. 507 I. and 353 I. B., dated the 6th February 1896 and 28th January 1897, respectively, are re-published for general information.

No. 507—I., Fort William, dated 6*th February* 1896.

Whereas H. H. the Maharaja of Mysore has ceded to the British Government full jurisdiction within the lands in his territory (including the lands occupied as stations, out-buildings and for other Railway purposes), which are occupied or may be hereafter occupied by the following lines of Railway in the Mysore State, namely: (1) the Bangalore Branch of the Madras Railway; (2) the Mysore State Railway from and inclusive of the Harihar Railway Station to and inclusive of the Bangalore Railway Station; (3) from and inclusive of the Yeswanthpur Junction Railway Station to the frontier of the State on the Bangalore-Hindupur Section of the Mysore State Railway; and (4) the Kolar Gold-Fields Railway: in exercise of this jurisdiction and of the powers conferred by Sections 4 and 5 of the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act, 1879, and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to issue the following orders:—

PART I.

All laws for the time being in force in the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore shall be deemed to be in force in the aforesaid lands:—

Provided that notwithstanding anything in the Code of Criminal Procedure (Act X of 1882) or the Police Act (V of 1861) or in any other enactment for the time being in force, the Governor-General in Council may confer on any Police Officer all or any of the powers conferred or conferrable by or under the Code on any Magistrate, in regard to particular cases or to a particular class or particular classes of cases or to cases generally.

PART II.

For the purposes of the exercise of criminal jurisdiction within the aforesaid lands, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to make the following arrangements:—

(1) There shall be a Railway Magistrate, who shall be the District Magistrate of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore.

(2) The Railway Magistrate shall have the powers of a District Magistrate, as described in the Code of Criminal Procedure.

(3) There shall be a Superintendent of Railway Police, who shall be such person as the Governor-General in Council may from time to time appoint in that behalf.

(4) The Superintendent of Railway Police shall have the powers of a District Superintendent of Police as described in Act V of 1861, and the ordinary powers of a Magistrate of the first class with summary powers as described in the Code of Criminal Procedure.

(5) The Resident in Mysore shall have the powers of an Inspector General of Police and of a Local Government, as described in Act V of 1861.

(6) The First Assistant to the Resident in Mysore shall have the powers of a Court of Session, as described in the Code of Criminal Procedure, in respect of all offences over which magisterial jurisdiction is exercised by the Railway Magistrate or the Superintendent of Railway Police.

(7) The Resident in Mysore shall have the powers of a High Court, as described in the Code of Criminal Procedure, in respect of all offences over which the jurisdiction of a Court of Session is exercised by the First Assistant to the Resident and for all purposes whatsoever connected with the administration of criminal justice.

(8) This part of this Notification applies to all proceedings except—

(a) proceedings against European British subjects or persons jointly charged with European British subjects; and

(b) proceedings pending at the date of this Notification which should be carried on as if this Notification had not been issued.

PART III.

For the purposes of the exercise of civil jurisdiction within the aforesaid lands, the Governor-General in Council is pleased to make the following arrangements :—

(1) There shall be two Courts of Small Causes—the first with jurisdiction in all suits cognizable under Act IX of 1887, when the amount or value of the subject-matter does not exceed five hundred rupees, and the second when the amount or value of the subject-matter does not exceed fifty rupees.

(2) The District Judge of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore shall be the Judge of the First Court, and the Superintendent of Railway Police shall be the Judge of the Second Court.

(3) There shall be a District Court having the powers of a District Court as defined in Section 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure and with jurisdiction in all original suits, whatever be the amount or value of the subject-matter, and in all other cases in which jurisdiction is conferred on the District Court by any law for the time being in force in the aforesaid lands.

(4) The District Judge of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore shall be the Judge of the District Court.

(5) Appeals shall lie subject to the provisions of the enactments being in force in the aforesaid lands against the decrees and orders of the Resident in Mysore, who shall exercise the powers of an Appellate Court under the Code of Civil Procedure.

(6) Subject to the provisions of the said enactments, the Resident shall exercise the powers of a High Court for all purposes whatsoever connected with the administration of civil justice within the aforesaid lands.

PART IV.

(5) The Notification by the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 292-I, dated the 5th February 1883, is hereby cancelled.

No. 355—I. B., Fort William, dated 28th January 1897.

In exercise of the powers conferred by Sections 4 and 5 of the Foreign Jurisdiction and Extradition Act (XXI of 1879) and of all other powers enabling him in this behalf, the Governor-General in Council is pleased, in continuation of the Notification of the Government of India in the Foreign Department, No. 507-I, dated the 6th February 1896, regarding the exercise of jurisdiction over certain lines of Railway in the Mysore State, and with effect from the date of that Notification, to declare :—

(1) that Part III of the said Notification shall not apply to proceedings pending at the date thereof, which shall be carried on as if that Notification had not been issued ; and

(2) that in the case of all decrees or orders passed on or before, or where the proceedings were then pending, subsequent to the 6th February 1896, by the Courts of the Mysore State, in exercise of the civil jurisdiction possessed by them over the lands described in the aforesaid Notification, an appeal, when the same is allowed by law, shall lie as follows, namely—

(a) in the case of an original decree or order of a Munsiff or a Subordinate Judge to the Court of the District Judge of the Civil and Military Station of Bangalore ;

(b) in the case of an original decree or order of a District Judge, or appellate decree of a Subordinate Judge, to the Resident in Mysore.
